Headteacher's Note

Weekly Newsletter
Thursday 19th October 2023

Dear Parents/Carers,

Enterprise Week

Our children have been super busy this week making items that they can sell as part of Enterprise week. Our open morning was a huge success and each class made huge profits! The total amount of profit earnt was an astounding £1542.38! We would just like to say a huge thank you to everyone who supported this children this week and made purchases this morning. It would have not been possible without the generosity of our families. Also thank you to our PTFA members and governors who came to help during the morning. It is so greatly appreciated.

A message from Year 5

A huge thank you from Year 5 to all the businesses that supported our Enterprise Raffle. We do hope that you return the favour and support these wonderful businesses: Hapton Inn, Boyes, Original Factory Shop, Dads & Lads, Paul McEvoy, Burnley Football Club, Blondie Brownie, Raw Feedings Lancs, Moon Melts, Pasture Farm Foods and FM perfumes.

Thank you to everyone else who kindly donated raffle prizes.

Half Term

The children break up today for their half term as we have an INSET day tomorrow. We hope you all have a wonderful break and we look forward to seeing the children back on Monday 30th October.
